Attorney's Docket No.: 13425-052001 / 00382-US

foregoing animal model, Applicants' Example 7 compound and Example 8 compound possess the ability to reduce food intake, while Isaac's compound 4a does not.

Applicants submit that the compounds covered by claims 62-100 are not prima facie obvious over Isaac because the claimed compounds possess a property that the Isaac compounds do not have, namely the ability to reduce food intake. Applicants respectfully request that the rejection not be applied to new claims 62-100.
